DOUGLAS YOUNG & CO.

On Monday, 16th February, and Following Days,
At 12 o'clock each day. On view Friday and Saturday previous, 10 a.m.
till 4 p.m. Catalogues, price 2/- each, of Messrs. Huntington & Leaf, 65, London Wall, E.C., or of the Auctioneers, 51, Coleman St., E.C. 2, and 213, Clapham Road, S.W. 2.

Conditions of Sale.

1.—The highest bidder to be the Purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be immediately put up again and re-sold. The Auctioneer reserves to himself the right of refusing the bidding of any person, and the right to withdraw, consolidate, or divide any lot or lots, as may be deemed advisable. A reserve price may be placed on any of the lots by the Vendors, and they may bid more than once for any lot by themselves or an agent.

2.—No person to advance less than one shilling at each bidding; above two pounds, two shillings; and so on in proportion, or the Auctioneer may settle the rate of bidding.

3.—The Purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down on the fall of the hammer a deposit of five shillings in the pound, in part payment of the purchase-money, and, if required, to pay the whole amount of purchase-money of any lot: in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold. Deposits to be applicable to all or any of the lots bought by a Purchaser. No lots will be transferred from one buyer to another.

4.—Each Purchaser shall pay the remainder of his purchase-money for all the lots purchased by him on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday of the week following the sale, and before the possession of any lot shall be delivered to him, for which purpose a clerk will attend on the premises on those days only, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

5.—The lots must be cleared away with all faults, imperfections, and errors of every description, at the Purchasers' expense, before 5 o'clock p.m. on Wednesday, February 25th, according to the directions of the person appointed to deliver the lots. In default, the Auctioneers will not be responsible for any lot or lots, and on no account can any lot be removed during the time of Sale.

6.—As the whole is on view, no warranty is given or to be implied by the description in the catalogue, and no allowance can therefore be made for any defects or errors of description.

7.—Any wilful or careless damage caused by removal to be made good by the persons committing the same, principals being considered responsible for the acts of their servants.

8.—Upon failure to comply with any of the above conditions, the deposit-money shall be absolutely forfeited, the lot or lots, at the option of the Auctioneer, to be re-sold by public or private sale, without giving previous notice to the Purchaser, and the deficiency which may arise on such re-sale, together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages, but any surplus that may arise therefrom shall belong solely to the Vendors.

LASTLY.—The Auctioneer to be the sole arbitrator in every matter of dispute.

NO CHEQUES TAKEN.
